

Sunflower Farmers Market Coupon Policy

Sunflower Farmers Market gladly accepts manufacturer coupons that have been clipped from newspapers or magazines, as well as internet coupons that have been printed by the customer.

Manufacturer Coupons

- Customer must follow manufacturer coupon restrictions printed on coupon.
- Coupon specifications on item (brand, product and size) must be met in order to receive discount.
- Coupons must have an expiration date clearly listed.
- Coupons must have a redemption address clearly listed.
- Coupons must be current; expired coupons cannot be accepted.
- Original coupons only; photocopies cannot be accepted.
- Coupon UPC codes must be legible.
- Coupon values cannot exceed the retail price of the item. If the value of the coupon exceeds the retail price, only the retail amount of the item will be deducted.

Internet Coupons*

- Internet coupons are subject to the same restrictions as manufacturer coupons; see above.

Competitor Coupons

- We do not accept competitor coupons or manufacturer coupons from competitor ads.

*We gladly accept legitimate internet coupons; however, there are a growing number of fraudulent internet coupons in circulation. We are committed to protecting our customers, manufacturers, and our company against this illegal activity. Unfortunately, we cannot honor an internet coupon if it is revealed to be fraudulent. Management has the right to refuse any coupon or to limit quantities. Sunflower Farmers Market reserves the right to withdraw the acceptance of internet coupons.
